Global Market Update

- 10 yr US treasury yield in the last trading rose softly to 2.85% after two year budget proposal was finally approved by the house and then signed by Trump. During voting time in the house, the proposal gained 240 supporters against 186 opponents. The proposal added USD300 billion to accommodate several programs namely increasing military budget and natural disaster relief. This circumstance raised another pressure on US debt market (yield raise) because the raising budget will be followed by additional issuance of US treasury to minimize budget deficit. Under this circumstances, Bank of America revised US budget deficit up by USD35 billion in 2018 and USD20 billion in 2019. In addition to that, raising government expenditure increased worrisome about the impact on inflation that could close or even match with the fed's target at 2% and triggering The Fed to lift its benchmark rates more than 3 times this year. Different with US treasury, global yield tended to be lower in which UK Gilt and German Bund declined to 1.57% and 0.74%, respectively.

Domestic Market Update

- Indonesia composite bond index in the last trading on the secondary market was relatively stagnant at 245,22 compared with previous day.
- Indonesia's current account deficit in the fourth quarter of 2017 rose by 2.2% GDP compared with previous day at 1.75% GDP due to declining balance of trade surplus. Meanwhile, in full year, current account deficit in 2017 was slightly lower to 1.7% GDP compared with previous year at 1.8% GDP.
- Today, despite US treasury rose somewhat, Indonesia government bonds prices in the secondary market are likely to rise softly due to positive sentiment from the expectation of rupiah appreciation that driven by low current account deficit and several global yield namely UK gilt and German Bund that moved lower. The yield of 10 year Indonesian bond (FR0064) is likely to move in the range of 6.29% (98.75) - 6.32% (98.50).

- Yield 10 tahun US treasury pada perdagangan terakhir meningkat tipis ke level 2,85% setelah rancangan anggaran untuk 2 tahun akhirnya disetujui oleh House (DPR) dan kemudian ditandatangani oleh Trump. Selama voting di dalam DPR, rancangan tersebut memperoleh 240 suara yang mendukung berbanding 186 yang menolaknya. Rancangan tersebut meningkat USD300 miliar untuk mengakomodasi beberapa program seperti peningkatan anggaran militer dan bantuan bencana alam. Keadaan tersebut memberikan tambahan tekanan bagi pasar obligasi AS (yield meningkat) karena meningkatnya anggaran akan diikuti dengan penambahan penerbitan surat utang untuk meminimalisir defisit anggaran. Dengan kondisi tersebut, Bank of America memperkirakan tambahan defisit sebesar USD35 miliar di tahun 2018 dan USD20 miliar di 2019. Selain itu, meningkatnya pengeluaran pemerintah meningkatkan kekhawatiran terkait dampaknya terhadap inflasi yang dapat mendekati atau mencapai target The Fed sebesar 2% dan mendorong The Fed menaikkan suku bunga acuannya lebih dari 3 kali di tahun ini. Berbeda dengan US treasury, yield global cenderung menurun di mana yield UK Gilt dan German Bund turun masing-masing menjadi sebesar 1,57% dan 0,74%.

- Indonesia Composite Bond Index pada perdagangan terakhir cenderung stagnan di level 245,22 dibandingkan hari sebelumnya.
- Defisit neraca transaksi berjalan Indonesia pada kuartal IV-2017 meningkat menjadi sebesar 2,2% PDB dibandingkan dengan kuartal sebelumnya sebesar 1,7% PDB yang disebabkan oleh menurunnya surplus neraca perdagangan pada kuartal tersebut. Secara full year di tahun 2017, defisit neraca transaksi berjalan turun tipis menjadi sebesar 1,7% PDB dibandingkan dengan tahun 2016 sebesar 1,8% PDB.
- Hari ini, meski yield US treasury meningkat tipis, pergerakan harga SBN di pasar sekunder berpotensi menguat terbatas seiring dengan proyeksi menguatnya nilai tukar rupiah akibat sentimen turunnya defisit transaksi berjalan serta cenderung menurunnya beberapa yield global seperti UK Gilt dan German Bund. Yield benchmark 10 tahun (FR0064) diperkirakan akan bergerak pada kisaran 6,29% (98,75) - 6,32% (98,50).
